

Please do not allow change for banks to the Indiana do not call list law. Before its implementation, banks were the worst offenders. Even after numerous requests to put me on their do not call list, calls continually came. They were very aggravating and time consuming.